ARTICLE VI PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association shall be to act as the official representative of the members of the Association. It shall, through its Executive, promote, support, and protect the status, interests, and general well-being of the members of the Association. It shall, to the best of its abilities, execute, promote, support, and protect all decisions and mandates made by the General Assembly. It shall consider and discuss all issues of a material, cultural, educational, recreational, political, and social nature that may affect the members of the Association. It shall also initiate, maintain, promote and conclude any business or matters that may affect the members of the Association. Finally, it shall make its best efforts to foster understanding and fellowship between all sectors of the College community and the community as a whole.

ARTICLE VII PRINCIPLES

The Association is founded upon and must thus, through its executive, support, defend, respect, and function in accordance with the following principles:

7.01 That the Vanier College Students' Association supports the equality of all, regardless of their race, religion, sex, ethnic or national origin, sexuality, gender identity, language, ideology, association, age, and mental or physical disability. Furthermore, the Association upholds the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms for all of its students to ensure the equality of all. It is therefore mandated to its Executive Council and members to support the equality of all people in all activities it undertakes and to refuse the promotion or sponsorship of any organization or enterprise that may be in conflict with this position.

7.02 That everyone has the right to an education. The Vanier College Students' Association, therefore, supports the idea of education being accessible to all and rejects any form of hindering a person's right to acquire an education within the province, country, and world.

7.03 That it is imperative to support environmentalism and sustainability within the College, as well as within all other forms of governments and/or organizations both within our society and worldwide.

7.04 That the Vanier College Students' Association functions by and supports the system of democracy, both within the College as well as all other forms of government and/or organizations. For this reason, the decision of the General Assembly - where a larger body of students' opinions can be voiced - always takes priority over the decision(s) or opinion(s) of the Executive Council, the sub-committees, and/or any individual of the Association.

7.05 That all students must follow the policies of Vanier College, specifically the Zero Tolerance policy and Code of Conduct. These policies are put in place to maintain order and safety on the school campus. Any student found in violation of these policies, will suffer consequences determined by the College that the Association stands by.

7.06 That the Vanier College Students' Association and its corresponding entities may not endorse, promote, or oppose political parties, candidates, or platforms as it is required to maintain a stance of political neutrality. Furthermore, the Vanier College Students' Association may not attempt to direct its members to which candidate or party they should give their votes to. As a result, the Executive council, all clubs, committees, subcommittees, and any other affiliated entity within the Vanier College Students' Association are required to act according to the Association's principle on political neutrality.

Said meeting must occur between the first day of the fall semester and the last academic day of the first week of September every year, and its date must be decided before the nomination period starts. After the interview, the Executive Council will decide the members selected and will ratify them. For the following semester, an election shall be held for the vacant positions that will become available at the time, as well as the position(s) that was/were not filled in the previous election, however the mandate of said position will terminate at the end of that one semester, thus preserving the order of elections described in Article XXIII. If a vacant officer position arises, the executive council may appoint from among the coordinators, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority, a member to fill the vacant position, provided that this member was elected, and not appointed, as a coordinator. A general executive may not assume the responsibilities of an officer position. A general executive may be appointed to help an officer position, but in the case that an officer position is vacant, it may only be officially taken over by another officer, or a coordinator.

By-elections shall only be held in the case that the total number of executive council members falls below nine (9) members, once all general executive positions have been elected. In the case that an officer position has not been elected and that the vacant position is being held temporarily by a coordinator, an exceptional by-election can be held only to fill this said position.

The respondent may only be impeached by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of all members of the Executive Council, including the Chairperson of the impeachment proceedings in accordance with Article XXVII Point 06.

If a plea of “not liable” is entered for all allegations, then the Council will proceed with the impeachment hearing as outlined in Article XXVII Point 06.

- e. Evidence shall be presented to the Council. Anyone testifying as a witness against the respondent shall be subjected to Article 13 of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms (protection from self-incrimination).
- f. A two-thirds majority vote of all Council members will have successfully removed the respondent from office and will result in the loss of privileges or benefits for the respondent.

In the case of none-attendance by the part of the defendant, a plea of “liable” will be assumed and the hearing will then proceed accordingly.

27.07 Appeal of the Impeachment Decision
